

Biophilic Oasis

It is the office hospitality space with the greatest commitment to the well-being of workers. Natural elements, such as grass and plants, are prominent features of this environment. While not exclusively confined to green spaces or office interiors, these elements frequently extend to rooftops and open spaces accessible to all employees.

